Extra Options:

Our Eagle Ridge Lodge has American heritage features which characterise the elegant and rustic four-bedroom country 579 sqm Lodge which is surrounded by wrap-around decks and paved patios. When you walk through the front doors, you can't possibly miss the sweeping solid rimu staircase separating two formal lounges. The front lounge is adorned with a large brick fireplace and grand piano next to a dining area, impressive fully equipped kitchen and butler's pantry. An antique 1860's snooker table, imported from the UK is the textbook distraction for a nervous groom. Large leather sofas enrich the second lounge and face another beautiful open fire where you can just picture yourself relaxing with a glass of red wine on a cold winter's night. Upstairs the master bedroom and ensuite both take pride and place with awe-inspiring rural and ocean vistas to Mountt Maunganui, the Bay of Plenty and surrounding country.

Exclusive use of the Lodge from 11am – 6pm for the bridal party to get ready, photos, and to host your ceremony before going up to the Function Centre for the Reception - $1,500.00.

Overnight accommodation and the use of all four rooms from your Wedding Day to the following day. Check-in from 3pm, check-out by 10am. Late check-out available on request - $1,000.00.

Celebrant

All three celebrants come with their own PA System and wireless microphone. The sound system can be used for music before and after the ceremony.

Christine Grant

www.christinegrant.co.nz

Christine Grant is a fulltime professional celebrant in Tauranga and has been since 2001.

She is passionate and proficient in her role. Her personality demonstrates sincerity, a loyal and honest quality of enjoyment and value in her work; as, for her, the formal union between couples cannot be expressed any stronger than by the commitment of marriage.

Wedding traditions and customs vary greatly between cultures, ethnic groups, religions, countries, and social classes. Music, poetry, prayers or readings from scripture or literature are also commonly incorporated into the ceremony. Christine creates an atmosphere that sets the scene for a romantic celebration of unity – a unity based on love, trust and forgiveness.

Christine communicates with all those involved on the wedding day and employs an attention to detail to ensure the ceremony runs smoothly.

Wendy Barton

www.wendybarton.co.nz

A personalised and meaningful ceremony is a wonderful way to celebrate a significant life milestone, welcome a new person, or honour a loved one's life.

As an experienced celebrant, Wendy offers you her professional knowledge, creativity, and sensitive guidance as she works with you to create a ceremony that is uniquely yours. On the day of your ceremony Wendy's priority is for you to be completely stress-free (but excited!) and to truly enjoy every moment.

Pure Images

Rochelle Withell

<http://www.pureimages.co.nz/>

Rochelle likes to be able to tell a story through honest documentation and creativity. Rochelle likes to learn who her couples are, their story, how they met and where they're going. She listens. So knowing what's important to you is important to her. Capturing moments as they unfold is also important.....keeping it natural and keeping it real. Rochelle's approach is also to have you at ease so you can create some natural art together, keeping in mind some of the loveliest of images are often the ones where she's working discreetly leaving you in your own company.

Jackie O Photography

www.jackieophotography.net

From as young as Jackie can remember she has always loved being behind a camera. Having children really inspired Jackie to learn how to use her camera, and what started as one photography course has turned into a lifetime passion of learning and creating. She loves capturing natural moments of life, love and celebration in a fun and relaxed way. Jackie would love to talk to you about how she can capture your "moment" to treasure a lifetime.

Creative Grain

Hayley Smith

www.creativegrain.nz

Hayley is the principal photographer at Creative Grain.

It's pretty tough choosing someone for your special day but Hayley very much believes there must be good 'chemistry' between client and photographer, and for that to work there must be a good relationship. There is no point having a photographer whose personality is that of a potato! Hayley is very easy going and has the ability to make you feel comfortable in front of the lens. Hayley is creative, passionate and professional. And if you want something a little different Hayley is all for it!

Music

GrooveDJ

www.groovedjs.co.nz

Groove DJs understand the importance of music and sound at your wedding. Their wedding DJ experience and attention to detail will make your wedding ceremony and reception stress free. Music is an integral part of a wedding - certain songs create certain moods. With their talented DJs experience they understand that wedding music playlists have to be perfect! They play the right music at the right time at your wedding.

They will meet with you personally to discuss all your wedding music needs. They will make sure all your songs are played and the night runs perfectly. They are also happy to take additional requests from guests throughout the wedding.

Any genre of music including classic wedding music, kiwiana, New Zealand Top 40 charts, rock music, rock n roll...all the dance floor fillers.

Groove DJ's will entertain your guests from Pre-Ceremony right through until midnight!

Tell Your Friends

Two musicians, Adam and Kyle are brothers.

School teachers during the day. They both play the guitar and drums. They swap instruments throughout the night. They play all sorts of music and their music is such a mix, all age groups enjoy their entertainment.

They haven't got a website as they do their gigs by word of mouth.

Tell your Friends will entertain your guests for 4 hours in total starting from your first dance.

Extra Options: They will do extra hours if required – POA.
